The Ernest Cook Trust
Average grant:	Small Grants up to £4,000 (most awards are £1,000 - £1,500) Large Grants £4,000 - £10,000
Average length of grant:	One year
Areas of Work:	The Ernest Cook Trust is one of the UK's leading outdoor learning charities. Rooted in the conservation and management of the countryside, the Trust actively encourages children and young people to learn from the land through hands-on outdoor learning opportunities on its estates and by offering grants. The small grants programme supports state schools and small registered charities which would like to undertake projects which meet the Trust's objectives and require a small amount of pump-priming in order for such projects to take place. The programme is a rolling one, with meetings at two-monthly intervals throughout the year – but it is wise to think well ahead. Suitable applications are allocated to the next available meeting, however due to high demand you are advised to submit an application at least six months ahead of your project start date. The large grants programme is aimed at more comprehensive education programmes: these sometimes require support for the salary of an education officer; in such cases the ECT would always expect to be a part-funder. The range of the programme is wide; over the years education projects linked to theatres, art galleries and orchestras have been supported, as have those covering a wide range of environmental and countryside projects.
Beneficial area:	UK
How to apply:	There are no application forms. All applicants are asked to post a covering letter on the official headed paper of the applicant organisation (letters from schools must be signed by the head teacher) and also include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • up to two additional sheets of A4 describing the organisation, outlining the project and specifying its educational elements and the way in which it fits in with the interests of the ECT • a simple budget for the project, outlining the way in which the grant would be spent • a list of any other funding applications • the latest annual report and accounts for the organisation (schools are not required to send one) Please do not send further supporting material or e-mail applications, which are not accepted. Applications must be posted to: The Grants Administrator, The Ernest Cook Trust, The Estate Office, Fairford Park, Fairford, Gloucestershire GL7 4JH

Contact:	Questions (not applications) can be addressed to the Grants Administrator: grants@ernestcooktrust.org.uk or on 01285 712492

Local Opportunities – Nuneaton and Bedworth

Nuneaton and Bedworth Borough Lottery
Average grant:
Average length of grant:
Areas of Work:	The Council is inviting local charities and other not-for-profit organisations to register as good causes with the Borough’s new lottery. Voluntary organisations and community groups of all kinds are being encouraged to take advantage of this new income stream, for which they will have no associated costs and no application fees. The Borough Lottery is a fun and effective way for your good cause to raise funds. To qualify as a good cause for the Borough Lottery, organisations must satisfy certain requirements – for instance, they must provide community activities within Nuneaton and Bedworth which are of benefit to residents, have a formal set of rules and have no undue restrictions on membership. Good causes must be either a registered charity with a board of trustees, a constituted group with a volunteer management committee or a registered Community Interest Company. There are some restrictions on the types of organisation permitted to apply – for example, profit-making groups or those promoting political or religious beliefs don’t qualify as good causes.
Beneficial area:	Nuneaton and Bedworth
How to apply:	See ‘Contact’ below
Contact:	For more information on how to register your organisation and about how the Borough Lottery works, please email borough.lottery@nuneatonandbedworth.gov.uk
